

Control. Confidence. Clarity.

Unlock the Power of Your Insurance Data

LineSlip Risk Intelligence converts your static policy documents into a live, searchable, report-ready source of truth for your entire program.

Sound familiar?

- Your risk team is lean, your program is growing in complexity, and you can't readily access a complete and accurate view of it.
- Your schedule of insurance lives in a spreadsheet that only one person knows how to update.
- Your program's history is scattered across inboxes and broker portals, at risk every time someone retires or a broker relationship changes.

LineSlip Risk Intelligence evolves your risk management system from Excel sheets to a modern purpose-designed insurance data platform.

By automatically consolidating and organizing your insurance program data, LineSlip delivers report-ready analytics, insights, and dashboards – giving you immediate access to all your policy data.
